

Design your own tea party for World Book Day!

We love books here at Middlesbrough Reads! To celebrate World Book Day, we're asking you to design a fantastical tea party, made up of your favourite story book characters.

Let your imagination run wild - this tea party can be as weird and wonderful as you choose! Maybe it's a tea party in the forest with the Gruffalo, or maybe The Tiger who Came to Tea eats everybody's food...

Enter the competition!

Take a photo of your completed answers and your drawing and send it to us on Facebook at @BoroReads or email bororeads@literacytrust.org.uk for the chance to win a book bundle. Deadline is Friday 24th March

Make sure to follow us on Facebook at @BoroReads where we will announce the winner, or scan the QR code!

SCAN ME

Name and age:

[Dotted box for name and age]

School:

[Dotted box for school]

Plan your tea party!

You can invite three book characters, who do you choose?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What do you like these about characters? (Are they funny, silly, kind, strange?)

[Light blue box for character traits]

What will your characters eat and drink at the table? What do they talk about?

[Light blue box for food and drink]

Draw your characters below
(Use a separate piece of paper if you need)

[Large dotted box for drawing characters]