

Design your own fantastical dinner party for World Book Day!

We love books here at Middlesbrough Reads! To celebrate World Book Day, we're asking you to design a fantastical dinner party, made up of your favourite book characters. Let your imagination run wild - this dinner party can be as weird and wonderful as you choose!

Maybe Harry Potter will conjure up some magical treats or the Mad Hatter will provide endless tea....

Enter the competition!

Once you have completed the activity, take a photo of both your drawing and letter and send it to us on Facebook at @BoroReads or email bororeads@literacytrust.org.uk for the chance to win a bundle of books. Deadline is Friday 24th March

Make sure to follow us on Facebook at @BoroReads where we will announce the winner, or scan the QR code!

SCAN ME

Name and age:

School:

Plan your dinner party!

You can invite three book characters, who do you choose?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Draw your characters below

(Use a separate piece of paper if you need)

Describe your unusual dinner party to a friend!

Now that you have decided who you will invite to your story-inspired dinner party, it's time to write about the event.

We'd like you to imagine that you are writing a letter to a friend or family member, telling them all about your dinner party. What would you tell them? (Explain how the characters interact and behave at your party, what happens, what you eat and drink, what they talk about, and anything else that you think of!)

Write your letter on separate paper, and start with 'Dear _____, you won't believe what happened!'